

Directions from Rt. 3: Park at the University of Maine Hutchinson Center, in the back of the parking lot where a sign points to the Little River Trail. The trail leaves the back corner of the parking lot and follows blue blazes through maturing mixed woods to a brook crossing on a bridge. It follows the brook and cross country running trail of Troy Howard Middle School, passes its athletic fields, crosses the back of the parking lot, and ducks to the left of the Greenhouse and Garden Project. From there the trail crosses a bridge over a brook onto Waldo County YMCA property and passes the Community Garden and around the back field of the YMCA to Rt. 52. Follow the blue blazes along the sidewalk and across the road to the Walsh Ball Fields. Trail directions continue below.

Directions from Trail coming from Rt 52: The trail continues across Rt. 52 to the YMCA, through the back yard of the YMCA, past the Community Garden and across a bridge, still following blue blazes, to the Troy Howard Middle School campus. It runs past the garden Project and Greenhouse before crossing the back of the parking lot and turning right to skirt athletic fields. From there it follows the cross country trail into hemlock woods along a brook. It crosses the brook on a bridge and follows blazes through maturing woods, finally coming out in the parking lot of the Hutchinson Center on Rt. 3.
